THE SOLE SISTERS

We were born with an innate love of soles. We started out in 2011 as an e-community of stylish women around the world sharing clicks of their precious footwear. Over time and a few thousand steps across Europe and lesser known regions of India, that love turned into a neat independent label called The Sole Sisters. Knowing how much we walk (and run), and how we love rocking a strong stride, our first priority was comfort and quality. Then came our sense of unique style, where we believe every woman is rooted, yet reaching up to find herself in the most individualistic way possible. This is why we've chosen to empower, re-invent, handcraft, handpick and deep-design every process that goes into each of our pair. It reflects the girl who packs a suitcase so that she never returns, walks a promenade so that she turns heads and speaks in words that all deem wise. Traditional crafts, earthy culture, weaving details, spur-o-the-moment travel, damp foothills and spending hours with the right craftspeople gives us a high. It also gives you that perfect pair.
